Land Acknowledgement

We acknowledge that we are on the traditional territory and homelands of California Native Peoples. These Nations include over 120 federally recognized tribes and many other non-recognized tribes that are all very culturally diverse. We thank these Nations for their generosity and we keep them in our hearts and thoughts as we are in this space today, this week, and every day.

Question for the Chat

How are youth in your communities doing?

“Our fertile soil is our current reality exposing all the cracks in the systems, all the needs, and all the strengths in place to challenge and change the status quo.”—Mercedes Tune, Capacity Building Program Specialist

Youth in the Lead Goals & Toolkit Elements

- Support preventionists' ability to reach out to young people, as well as parents, caregivers, educators, and policymakers:
 - Invite youth to tell their stories
 - Provide an adaptable self-care guide for youth talking about their experiences
 - Shareable images and a youth video on teen dating violence, risk and protective factors, and the importance of trusted adults

#CAYouthLead

Youth in the Lead Goals & Toolkit Elements

- Educate Legislators on Prevention
 - Our Orange Day Rally will be virtual
- Provide a guide to preventionists to support adaptations to youth engagement curricula

Question for the Chat
