

JOIN THE PARTNERSHIP'S (VIRTUAL) ANNUAL MEMBERSHIP MEETING & POLICY ADVOCACY DAY!

WHO SHOULD ATTEND?

The best ideas come from having EVERYONE AT THE TABLE! We want all staff, advocates, preventionists, volunteers, and folks working in DV organizations/agencies to attend!

We especially encourage survivors, youth, and staff who work directly in their communities to register for Policy Advocacy Day and MAKE THEIR VOICES HEARD!

WHY SHOULD YOU ATTEND?

We are not the Partnership without our members, our survivors, and our communities. OUR EVENTS ARE FOCUSED ON YOU. Whether you want to de-stress after a year filled with challenges, be in community with your fellow peers, and participate in championing your work through policy advocacy — we invite you to attend!

MAY 4: ANNUAL MEMBERSHIP MEETING HIGHLIGHTS

LEARN ABOUT THE PROGRAMS the Partnership, and our members statewide, have been working on as well as our vision for the year ahead.

BE IN COMMUNITY WITH YOUR PEERS FROM ACROSS THE STATE. Share your strengths and struggles with breakout discussions on the impacts of COVID 19, racial injustice, and other important events of the past year.

Optional events to DECOMPRESS AND CONNECT:

- Live Yoga and Meditation classes
- Lunch with the new Executive Director
- Happy Hour with the Partnership staff

MAY 5: POLICY ADVOCACY DAY HIGHLIGHTS

HELP SHAPE THE FUTURE of California's movement to end domestic violence.

MAKE YOUR VOICES HEARD. Share with legislators how programs/survivors are impacted by COVID, and why NOW is the time to prioritize funding domestic violence programs, especially prevention.

WE'RE PASSING THE MIC TO YOU. Advocate for the needs of survivors, families and communities throughout the state.

OK, YOU'VE CONVINCED ME!
