Amplifying the Voices of Black, Indigenous & People of Color

- Facilitating Movement Conversations: Supporting the indigenous work and anti-racism framework to facilitate learning about oppression, to support each other, to build connections to police; rejecting offer to collaborate.

- Opposing Prop. 20: Speaking out about the ways criminalization disproportionately impacts Black, Indigenous, and People of Color's leadership, and supporting the C.R.I.S.E.S Act.

- Results from the Accountability Survey, developed by the Asian White Allyship (AWA) and the Asian White Allyship Statewide Domestic Violence Conference: Spotlighting Black activists and providing guidance to the Partnership on policies, programs & staffing.

- Revising the Partnership’s Employee Handbook to ensure language considers societal norms and perceptions and experiences, framed on understanding societal power dynamics.

- Translation and interpretation of training and event materials and content.

- Developing our 21-22 policy agenda with a culturally-specific organizations and Tribes.

- Ongoing partnerships with the Alliance for Boys & Men of Color and ACLU.

- Regional calls: a collective space for shared learning, to support each other, to build relationships and to engage in meaningful discussions on racial justice, and the ways it impacts organizations at the programmatic and administrative levels.

- Executive Director Calls for Black, Indigenous, and People of Color: We are currently organizing these calls, if you would like to join.

- Regional calls: a collective space for shared learning, to support each other, to build relationships and to engage in meaningful discussions on racial justice, and the ways it impacts organizations at the programmatic and administrative levels.

- Executive Director Calls: Making space for high level discussions on racial justice, and the ways it impacts organizations at the programmatic and administrative levels.

- To Be Continued...

Promoting racial & cultural responsiveness and equity in organizational systems

- Guiding organizations through the Cultural Responsiveness Organizational Self-Assessment process, framed on understanding societal power dynamics.

- Guiding organizations through the Aspiring White Allyship Group and its Advisory Committee.

- Creating and facilitating the Aspiring White Allyship Group.

- Revising the Partnership’s Employee Handbook.

- Ongoing partnerships with the Alliance for Boys & Men of Color.

- Regional calls: a collective space for shared learning, to support each other, to build relationships and to engage in meaningful discussions on racial justice, and the ways it impacts organizations at the programmatic and administrative levels.

- Executive Director Calls: Making space for high level discussions on racial justice, and the ways it impacts organizations at the programmatic and administrative levels.

- To Be Continued...

Disrupting the Status Quo in Systems and Policies Impacting Survivors

- Our Policy Advisory Council represents diverse voices, and provides guidance to the Partnership on policy issues impacting survivors & communities.

- Our only hope for healing. We shine light on equitable, inclusive practices to embrace transformation.

- It exists as a response to systemic oppression. To reclaim our power, our identities and ourselves and support one another to facilitate our collective liberation — Michelle Alexander.

- Amplifying the Voices of Black, Indigenous & People of Color: We are currently organizing these calls, if you would like to join.

- To Be Continued...

Seeking Feedback from Our Members

- Blog Series: Reckoning with Inequities

- Facilitating Prevention Communities of Practice

- Creating and facilitating the Aspiring White Allyship Group and its Advisory Committee.

- Revisiting the Partnership’s Employee Handbook.

- Ongoing partnerships with the Alliance for Boys & Men of Color.

- Regional calls: a collective space for shared learning, to support each other, to build relationships and to engage in meaningful discussions on racial justice, and the ways it impacts organizations at the programmatic and administrative levels.

- Executive Director Calls: Making space for high level discussions on racial justice, and the ways it impacts organizations at the programmatic and administrative levels.

- To Be Continued...